1. Day 1, You came to me, Brood - ing so tend - er - ly.
 2. Day 2 did come and go, But one thing I did know:
 3. Day 3, the land so dry E - merged from wat - ers high.
 4. Day 4, the sun did shine With wings of heal - ing light.
 5. Day 5, the fish ar - rived A - gainst the world - ly tide.
 6. Day 6, from air to ground, Cat - tle and beasts a - round,

F C Dm G

You spoke a Word to me, and light did shine.
 Things earth - ly lost their glow; They're dead to me.
 Grass, herbs, and trees did rise; Your life had sprung.
 The moon was shin - ing, too, The church, my home.
 Death wat - ers they surv - ived, With life em - pow'ered.
 Then all cre - a - tion crowned With man— like You.

My dark - ness you ef - faced, My emp - ti - ness re - placed;
 The at - mos - phere— ex - panse Lift - ed my cir - cum - stance,
 My death You now re - cede. As life do rise in me;
 The saints as stars with light Shine midst this dark - 'ning night,
 From fish to bird I soar By wait - ing on You, Lord.
 Through growth ex - press - ing Thee With Your auth - or - it - y,

F C Dm G C

The gosp-el's light e - rased My his - tr'y vain.
 That life may thus ad - vance For growth in me.
 Rise more 'til there's no sea Wi - thin my being.
 Set - ting my feet a - right To walk Your way.
 Your grace to me af - fords Strength o'er all things.
 I'd reach ma - tur - it - y, Your pur - pose gained.
