

Morning Dawn Had Arisen

Bb Dm Eb F

1. Morn - ing dawn had a - ris - en, Ab - ra - ham sad - dled his don - key,
 2. To his young men he said then, "Stay and we'll re - turn to you."
 3. As You spoke with Your Fa - ther You bore the wood God laid on You;
 4. Man of sor - rows, I love You. From You men did hide their face.
 5. Dead in sins and of - fens - es, I'm a bruised reed, smok - ing flax.

Bb Dm Eb F

Took his two young men with him And Is - aac, his be - lo - ved son.
 To Mo - ri - ah he led him, His son Is - aac, just them two.
 As a lamb to the slaugh - ter O - be - dient to the death were You.
 With no ma - jes - ty to You, De - spised, for - sa - ken, and dis - graced.
 Yet to death You were giv - en, For of Your sheep, You'd not lose one.

Eb Bb Eb Bb

Lord, You're God's on - ly Son * And of God be - got - ten. *
 Just the son and the fa - ther, * Speak - ing with one an - oth - er. *
 Pre - cious blood of a Lamb, * Slain be - fore earth be - gan, *
 For my sins You were crushed. * Lord, I love You so much. *
 Like the wo - man, I'd weep, * Flow my tears at Your feet. *

Eb Bb F Bb

"This is My be - lov - ed Son, in whom I am well - pleased."
 Is - aac said, "My fa - ther!" A - bra - ham said, "Here I am."
 Laid Your life down for Your sheep, in love, That I might live.
 Chas-tened, scourged and then pierced through, my griefs and sor - rows bore.
 Je - sus Lord, I just love You, dear Lord, Je - sus my Lord.
